Description
I created an account but it somehow failed; anyway I went back to it to create a new one and I got the attached screenshot, it tells me I can click somewhere ("Please click on the account name to log in with") but there's no obvious link or button.

user fullname prefixed by account number on login choices page (#6634)

Accounts ordered by join date in order to have coherent indexes

Révision 8a97dddf - 09 mars 2015 18:16 - Serghei Mihai

typo fix on login choices page (#6634)

Historique

#1 - 09 mars 2015 11:31 - Benjamin Dauvergne

The fullname should be prefixed with a string like 'Account 1/2/3/etc...'.
I agree.
I order also the account to keep displayed indexes correct

#2 - 09 mars 2015 14:57 - Serghei Mihai

- Fichier 0001-user-fullname-prefixed-by-account-number-on-login-ch.patch ajouté
- Patch proposed changé de Non à Oui

#3 - 09 mars 2015 15:05 - Benjamin Dauvergne

Yep good catch for the order. Just add the new translations and it's perfect.

#4 - 09 mars 2015 16:06 - Serghei Mihai

I prefer to create another ticket to add all translations for registration backend as for now nothing is localized.

#5 - 09 mars 2015 17:03 - Frédéric Péters

For the English string, "Account nr. {{ c }} : {{ fullname }}" should be "Account #{{ c }}: {{ fullname }}" (# for the number and no space before the colon).

#6 - 09 mars 2015 17:11 - Benjamin Dauvergne

No localization tickets please. I don't think there is a lot of strings in the registration module, please localize them now, we still can improve them later.

#7 - 09 mars 2015 17:57 - Serghei Mihai

- Fichier 0001-typo-fix-on-login-choices-page-6634.patch ajouté

Typo fix and localizations added(quite unreadable because of other missing translations)

#8 - 09 mars 2015 18:07 - Benjamin Dauvergne

Make two commits, one with the template change the other with the translation update, don't need to post them here again.

#9 - 10 mars 2015 11:31 - Serghei Mihai
